The workshop will cover farm and ranch business succession, family estate planning and beginning farmer programs. It is intended to be useful for established farm and ranch owners, for their successors, and for beginners.

Topics include:

- the stages of succession planning - contribution & compensation, balancing the interests of on-farm and off-farm heirs;
- the importance of communication, setting goals, analyzing cash flow, and balancing intergenerational expectations and needs;
- beginning farmer loan and tax credit programs;
- the use of trusts, wills, life estate deeds and business entities (such as the limited liability company) in family estate and business succession planning;
- buy-sell agreements, asset protection, taxation (federal transfer taxes, Nebraska inheritance tax, basis adjustment), and essential estate documents.

Presenters

- Dave Goeller, Deputy Director, Northeast Center for Risk Management Education, UNL
- Joe Hawbaker, Agricultural Law attorney, with Hawbaker Law Office, Omaha.

These workshops and lunch are made possible by the Nebraska Network for Beginning Farmers & Ranchers, the Farm and Ranch Project of Legal Aid of Nebraska, National Institute of Food and Agriculture, the Nebraska Department of Agriculture's NextGen, Nebraska Farmers Union Foundation, and University of Nebraska local extension offices.

Lunch will be provided.
